

Please keep the Do Not Law active in New Jersey. Without it my phone was overwhelmed to the point that I had to make my cell phone my primary phone and get rid of my home phone, something I don't feel safe without...